

Native acquisition context, with a compatibility view when needed

PRISM preserves repeated administrations in native survey files; BIDS phenotype tables remain available as aggregates.

Native PRISM survey layout

Canonical, acquisition-facing representation

sub-01/

ses-baseline/survey/

task-pss_run-01_acq-v1_survey.tsv

task-pss_run-01_acq-v1_survey.json

ses-week04/survey/

task-pss_run-02_acq-v2_survey.tsv

task-pss_run-02_acq-v2_survey.json

sub-02/ ...

Preserves participant, session, run, and version context

Optional bridge
compatibility e

➔

Lossy
aggregate view

BIDS phenotype/ table

Optional aggregate representation for compatibility

participant_id	pss_total	age
sub-01	18	24
sub-02	12	31
...

Does not unambiguously retain session, run, or acquisition

Design decision: native survey files remain canonical; phenotype/ is a useful downstream compatibility view.

This distinction preserves information needed for longitudinal and multi-version instruments while remaining compatible with established B